

Heyburn State Park

Heyburn State Park is an 8,000 acre state park located on the south end of Lake Coeur d'Alene. On State Highway 5, it is 6 miles east of Plummer, Idaho and 12 miles west of St. Maries, Idaho.

Recreational opportunities are numerous — boating, waterskiing, sailing, canoeing and fishing are all popular pursuits. Trails for the hiker, biker and horseback rider are often shaded by 300 year-old Ponderosa Pine.

The "Trail of the Coeur d'Alenes" is one of the most spectacular and popular trails in the western United States. Here, you will find 72 miles of paved asphalt that's perfect for road bikers and in-line skaters. The park offers two convenient trailheads where you can bike the 3,100-foot bridge/trestle across the St. Joe River for outstanding views of Benewah Lake and the surrounding area.

Rocky Point Day Use offers picnic shelters, a beach area, interpretive center, boat launch and store. The small Marina store offers ice, food, boat gas, boat & canoe rentals and souvenirs.

Heyburn State Park has 3 campgrounds. Hawley's Landing and Chatcolet are available for reservations online and with the IDPR Reservation Call Center.

- ❖ Hawley's Landing amenities include 10 tent sites, 42 hookup sites, showers, dump station and a public dock.
- ❖ Chatcolet amenities include 40 tent sites and no showers.
- ❖ Benewah amenities include 24 tent sites, 15 hookup sites, showers, public dock and a boat launch.

An 87 passenger cruise boat, "The Idaho", is operated on weekends during the summer. The boat travels up the St. Joe River, flowing between two lakes. Scenic, interpretive, catered lunch and dinner cruises are available. The boat is also available for private charters for weddings, parties, etc. For reservations please call 208 686 1308.

Entrance Fee

A daily $4.00 Entrance Fee is required in all day use areas in the park. A yearly annual pass can be purchased for $25 or 2 passes for $30. The annual pass is good at all Idaho State Parks.
